Because buying a new home may be the biggest investment you'll ever make. Although the process is very exciting it can be overwhelming. While the home you have selected may appear to be just what you're looking for, how can you be sure there aren't unknown defects which can make your investment in your future a costly one. Having your new home professionally inspected by Southern Preferred as early as possible in the buying process can save you thousands of dollars on items which you may be able to have the seller or builder correct. Our company is dedicated to providing you with valuable information about your new home. We thoroughly inspect all major components of the subject property to expose unknown defects and advise you about future maintenance about your home once the purchase is complete. Our company will give you the information you require to make an informed decision.
